About the Workshop

It is well-versed that on August 9th 2019 Ministry of Law and Justice has brought major amendments in Motor Vehicle Act of 1988 through Motor Vehicle (Amendment) Act, 2019, by which the extent of imprisonment and fine has been increased. This law has already been implemented from 1st September, 2019 in most of the states in India whereas some other states including Uttar Pradesh have still not implemented the same. Therefore a high level discussion is required amongst the eminent intellectuals of the society, so that information regarding various issues related to road safety and current amendment Act of 2019 could be conveyed to public as well to the government. This workshop focuses on various issues related to road safety, motor accident claims, justifiability of enhanced fine and liability under Motor Vehicle (Amendment) Act, 2019. It will apprise people of their rights & duties and provide a platform to traffic officials to share problems faced by them. All the lectures will be delivered by various legal luminaries and it will be beneficial for the participants in their future endeavours.
