ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Department of Applied Economics of University of Lucknow is organising a two-day International Conference on Emerging India and Second Generation Reforms: Policy Initiatives, Imperatives and Implications on 8-9 April, 2017. The current government has launched a range of policy initiatives which are not only innovative but transforming also. Many economists called them second generation reforms. Make in India, Skill India, Digital India, Mudra, Jan Dhan Yojana, DBT scheme are few of them. If implemented in right spirit, these policy initiatives have the power to bring revolutionary changes in the Indian economy and it will also have a direct impact on international scenario. Quality research papers are invited on the following themes:

Sub Themes:

1. Global economic environment, external sector and second generation reforms
2. Emerging India and its neighbour
3. Industrialisation and Make in India initiative
4. Status of Employment and Skill India campaign
5. Micro financing and MUDRA scheme
6. Good governance and Digital India
7. Entrepreneurship and Start Up initiative
8. Inclusive growth and JAM Trinity
9. Policy lessons for/from SAARC & ASEAN Countries

ADAAB LUCKNOW

Situated on the banks of river Gomti, the birth of this fabled city is said to date back to the Suryavansi dynasty. The popular folklore believes that the city was founded by Lakshaman, the younger brother of Lord Rama from whose name the city was known as Lakshmanpur, then Lakhanpur, Lakhnnavti and finally became to known as Lucknow.

UNIVERSITY OF LUCKNOW

The University today imparts education in eight faculties of Arts, Science, Commerce, Ayurved, Education, Law, Fine Arts and Student Welfare. It has under its ambit around 100 associated colleges which impart teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels to approximately 50,000 students.

The University has been awarded a four star rating by the NAAC. It is heartening to mention that the University has set a high benchmark in academic standards. It hosted the National Science Congress in 2002 which was attended by Shri A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, former President of India, the Prime Minister and leading scientists from world over. The University is well connected across the country by air (Chowdhary Charan Singh Airport), railway (Charbagh) and by road.

DEPARTMENT OF APPLIED ECONOMICS

The Department of Applied Economics has been in existence since 1921, the very year of the inception of the University of Lucknow. The department has been headed by eminent persons. It is presently headed by Prof. Madhurima Lall. Noted scholars like Dr. D. Pant, Dr. A.M. Lorenzo and Dr. S.R.K. Rao have been on the staff of the department. In 1962, the department introduced a separate PG degree of M.Com. (App.Eco.) to prepare the students for the emerging areas of Applied Economics in view of its growing importance. The department also offers research programs leading to Ph.D. and D.Litt degrees in Applied Economics.
