

Lucknow University Halls Admission 2018

(Information and schedule)

The students who have been admitted to various undergraduate courses/ programs of the University are offered admission, provisionally, to different Halls on the basis of their merit. All these students are required to complete admission related formalities and submit requisite fee in the State bank of India, Lucknow University Branch (IFSC code SBIN14906; account number 37193716053). Admission counseling will be done in respective Halls from July 02 –July 07, 2018 between 10:00AM to 05:00PM. If any student fails to complete the admission formalities within the stipulated time frame his/her seat will be cancelled. The name of selected students and the Hall to which admission is given will be uploaded shortly on the website. Information regarding re-admission will also be displayed on the website.

Students are required to submit following documents at the time of admission.

1. Bank slip of Rs. 50/- as form fee (only if not paid at the time of admission)
2. Hard copy of the duly filled Hall Admission Form
3. Five passport sized photographs
4. Two letters of recommendation
