UNIVERSITY OF LUCKNOW

The University of Lucknow (UoL) is a public state university based in Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh. Founded in 1920, the UoL is one of the oldest government owned institutions of higher education in India. UoL's main campus is located at Badshah Bagh, University Road area of the city with a second campus at Jankipuram. UoL is a teaching, residential and affiliating university, organized into more than 500 colleges and 17 institutes, located throughout the city and surrounding areas. The University has jurisdiction over colleges of four districts: Raebareli, Hardoi, Sitapur and Lakhimpur Kheri. The UoL is one of the four Public Universities in the State of Uttar Pradesh to be accredited with A++ status by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council.

Faculty of Engineering & Technology

The Faculty of Engineering & Technology (FoET) was re-established in 2017 as one of the faculties of the UoL. The vision of FoET is to be globally renowned for imparting quality engineering education in pioneering interdisciplinary technology. FoET's mission is to produce morally aware, dynamic, competent engineering professionals and leaders who shall steer the nation to a better future. The Faculty offers B.Tech. programme in Civil Engineering, Computer Science & Engineering (Core and Artificial Intelligence), Electrical Engineering, Electronics & Communication Engineering, Mechanical Engineering. It also offers BCA & MCA programmes. FoET had made substantial contribution to the academia and provides experience through internships in core companies of respective branches, along with expert talks, live projects, workshops and upscale labs. FoET is located in the second campus of the University in Jankipuram extension, Lucknow.
