on

30th Sept. – 01st Oct. 2023

Organized by

Department of Political Science,
University of Lucknow,
Lucknow

About University of Lucknow:

The idea of starting a University at Lucknow was first mooted by Raja Sir Mohammad Ali Mohammad Khan, Khan Bahadur, K.C.I.E. of Mahmudabad, who contributed an article to the columns of "The Pioneer" urging the foundation of a University at Lucknow. A little later Sir Harcourt Butler, K.C.S.I., K.C.I.E, was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of the United Provinces, and his well-known interest in all matters under his jurisdiction, specially in matters educational, gave fresh life and vigour to the proposal. The first step to bring the University into being was taken when a

General Committee of educationists and persons interested in university education appointed for the purpose, met in conference at Government House, Lucknow, on November, 10, 1919. At this meeting Sir Harcourt Butler, who was in the chair, outlined the proposed scheme for the new university

About The Department:

The Department of Political Science was established in 1922 as a teaching Department in the University of Lucknow. The Department holds the unique distinction of being the first independent and the oldest Department of Political Science in India. Besides, being engaged in teaching and research, the Department is committed to providing students with the best possible educational opportunities as well as developing spirit of inculcating knowledge. The objective of the Department is to develop understanding of the subject and analytical reasoning among the students as well as to encourage quality research. Our courses are updated regularly and are so structured as to enhance creativity and exploration of new ideas. Apart from teaching and research, the faculty members and the students are actively engaged in training, consultancy, extension activities and extra-curricular activities.
