

POSH Program at Hindi Department

A POSH workshop was organized by Internal Complaints Committee, University of Lucknow in Department of Hindi on 3rd December, 2021 at 11:00 am. The program started with lighting of lamp by Prof. Madhurima Pradhan, Chairperson Internal Complaint Committee, Dr.Y.P. Singh, Head Hindi Department, Dr. Krishna Ji Srivastava and the resource person Dr. Sanchita Ghatak. Dr. Y.P. Singh welcomed the guests and emphasized upon the status of women in ancient Indian society. Prof. Madhurima Pradhan highlighted the role and responsibilities of Internal Complaint Committee and the need of conducting gender sensitization workshops for creating a conducive environment at workplace.

Dr. Sanchita Ghatak. has completed her doctorate from Department of Psychology, University of Lucknow. She has 26 years of experience of teaching, corporate experience and as a trainer. She has been associated with initiative of U.P. government Mission Shakti and conducted workshops at various academic institution. She started the workshop with asking questions related to gender, role of males and females in society, which are learned by people during the process of socialization. She quoted many examples from day to day life, through which she tried to develop sensitivity among youth towards the gender. She also elaborated that one has to be sensitive while using the language in verbal communication and must be cautious about body language during non-verbal communication while interacting with other gender. Such as attitude is beneficial not only for boys and girls but also in creating healthy environment in family, institutions and at workplace.

In this workshop, Dr. Rashmi Kumar, Dr. Shruti and Dr. Mamta Kumari from Hindi Department were present. 54 students from Department of Hindi, Medieval Indian History (MIH), Ancient Indian History (AIH), the student members of Internal Complaint Committee from Department of Psychology and Statistics were present. Dr. Krishna Ji Srivastava extended the vote of thanks.

