“Bahurangi” –A Cultural Programme

The cultural programme “Bahurangi” was successfully organized on 19 March 2026 by the Happy Thinking Laboratory (HTL) in collaboration with the Counselling and Guidance Cell (CGC), University of Lucknow. The event was further conducted in association with the Department of English and Modern European Languages, Department of Public Administration, and Department of Oriental Sanskrit, reflecting a spirit of interdisciplinary collaboration. The programme was graced by the Honourable Vice Chancellor of University of Lucknow, Prof. Jai Prakash Saini, whose presence added dignity and inspiration to the occasion. The convenors of the event were Prof. Vaishali Saxena, Director of CGC, and Prof. Matrayi Priyadarshini, Director of HTL. The event was also attended by distinguished faculty members including Prof. Nazneen Khan, Prof. Archana Tiwari and Dr. Perna Mathur.

“Bahurangi,” as the name suggests, celebrated a spectrum of cultural expressions. The programme was skillfully anchored by Satya Prakash Prajapati, Abhishek Kashyap, and Yashi Shukla, who ensured a smooth and engaging flow of events. The performances included poetry recitation, singing, storytelling, mono-acts, monologues, and theatrical presentations by students of the university.

A notable highlight was the theatrical presentation of the Dyut Sabha episode from the Mahabharata by the Master’s students of English, conveying a powerful message of nari shakti and the importance of dignity and respect. Bachelor’s students presented a play on Judith Shakespeare, inspired by the ideas of Virginia Woolf, highlighting the challenges faced by women in literature. Another group performed Andher Nagari Chaupat Raja, a classic satire that was well received by the audience.

The musical segment added charm to the programme. Pranjal Kumar Singh presented a soulful Bengali song, while two students captivated the audience with their melodious singing accompanied by guitar. Poetry recitations by Ishika Rastogi, Achyut Bajpai and Divya Mishra enriched the programme with thoughtful expression.

Story telling by Anjali and Saloni engaged the audience, while a dramatic monologue by Atal Jeet Bajpai stood out as a powerful and captivating performance. The programme concluded on a high note with an energetic Qawwali presented by the Master’s students, filling the atmosphere with enthusiasm and applause.

In conclusion, “Bahurangi” was a vibrant and successful cultural event that provided a platform for students to showcase their talents while promoting creativity, unity and artistic expression within the university.
