

Workshop organized by IQAC Cell

Theme- “NAAC Awareness and New Accreditation Process for Affiliated Colleges”

Date- 29 January 2020

Resource person- Dr. Sudhanshu Pandey, IQAC Director, Kanpur University

the University of Lucknow, Internal quality assurance cell (IQAC) organized a workshop on NAAC awareness programme and new accreditation process for LU affiliated colleges on 29/01/2020 at DPA Auditorium, University of Lucknow. Around 80 colleges and 150 IQAC directors of colleges and principals/their representatives from other private and government universities in the city also attended the workshop. The NAAC awareness programme (NAP) workshop was inaugurated with saraswati vandana and lightening of the lamp by the dignitaries. The workshop was being coordinated by Dr. Ajay Prakash from MBA department, LU. Professor Rajiv Manohar, Director IQAC, LU welcomed all the participants and delegates of the workshop. He gave full outline of the workshop and emphasized on the need and importance of new accreditation process.

Chief Guest Dr. Sudhanshu Pandey, IQAC Director, Kanpur University in his statement tried to highlight the role of NAAC in the process of assessment and accreditation of higher education institution and giving advice for the maintenance of quality education.

Dr. Sudhanshu Pandey gave an overview of revised accreditation framework (RAF). He insisted that preparedness of the institution prior to NAAC, during the NAAC and when process of assessment and accreditation is over.

Dr. Pandey also highlighted the importance and need of such workshops as well as training programs meant for faculty members of the affiliated colleges and the university. The workshop concluded with the vote of thanks given by coordinator, LU NAAC.