Subject: Consultancy Collaborative Interactions

Dear Sir/Madam,

The University of Lucknow has a tremendously knowledgeable and talented pool of teachers. To harness this pool of expertise in providing solutions/consultancy to a wide range of organizations and also to meet the expectations of the Higher Education Policy, our Hon'ble Vice Chancellor has set up the Lucknow University Consultancy Clinic (LUCC), named 'PARAMARSH' on 31st January 2021.

As a nodal body, the Consultancy Clinic seeks to coordinate, support and promote the consultancy services provided by the esteemed teachers of the University. For further growth and development of consultancy assignments of the University, various stakeholders will together have to develop strategies to tap and target client organizations as per the unique skill set, knowledge and resources available in different Faculties/ Departments and Institutes of the University. Further, for the Consultancy Clinic to initiate any meaningful communication with the client organizations, it is imperative that the LUCC is informed about the areas in which our esteemed teachers are willing to undertake consultancy assignments.

To meet the above stated objectives, LUCC team proposes to interact with the teachers of various Departments/Faculties and Institutes on Zoom platform as per the attached schedule. Zoom link will be shared a day prior to the scheduled meet with the respective Dean/Head/Incharge.

We earnestly solicit your kind support and cooperation in informing all the teachers in your respective Faculty/ Department/ Institute about the planned schedule of interaction and the Zoom link, and motivating them to participate in full strength.

With warm regards,

(Dr. Ritu Narang)
