

Code of Conduct for Students

The University of Lucknow harbours students of diverse demographic profile and delivers programmes in various disciplines. The University is committed to provide quality holistic education focussed on developing competencies of students and inculcate values for sustenance and welfare of humanity. Henceforth, the students should follow the defined norms to maintain a learning environment that promulgates well-being of all stakeholders and uphold the dignity of the university.

- Every Student should follow all regulations set by the university for different activities and maintain decorum by way of appropriate behaviour.
- Every Student should pay respect to teachers and staff of the university.
- Their behaviour should uphold the values and reputation of the university.
- Every Student should wear ribboned identity card every day while on campus.
- Every Student should be regular in classes, do their assignments timely, and read the notices displayed on notice boards and university website regularly.
- Every Student should participate in various activities organized in the campus.
- The students participating in activities organized outside campus representing the university should strictly adhere to the norms of the host institution and should not indulge in any activity that defame the institution.
- Every Student should read and follow the instructions for entry to the premises, use of library and other facilities for students.
- Every Student should keep the premises clean and contribute in environment protection and plantation drives.
- Every Student should switch off lights and fans not in use, and close taps and other water outlets when not required.
- No offensive words or symbols should be written/drawn in black board, wall, online platforms (teaching and related activities), and such places.
- Every Student should not indulge in any activity that is detrimental to safety of others.
- Boys should not go inside girls' common room without permission and vice versa.
- Ragging is completely prohibited and is a serious punishable offense.
- Every Student should not harm or damage the property of the university.
- In examination or other assessment process, the students should not indulge in copying or use of other malpractices, any such activity is punishable as per the norms of the university. Decorum is to be maintained during examination and other such activities.
- The students using hostel facilities should follow the guidelines issued by respective authorities.

All the students should abide by the rules/ guidelines to ensure a healthy, friendly, innovative and collaborative learning environment. For any breach of rules/guidelines, the assigned committee shall look into the case and the student may be awarded punishment and suitable disciplinary action may be taken. The punishment may be warning/ restriction / expulsion/ monetary penalty/ suspension or ineligibility for readmission.