Misra, Convener of Gender Sensitization Cell, the literary initiative of the students of University of Lucknow Kavyom Foundation, presented the play 'Kitne Baune Hum Tum' at IIIT Una, Himachal Pradesh. This presentation was done under the joint aegis of Kavyom, the student unit of Lucknow University and the Internal Complaints Committee Cell of IIIT Una.

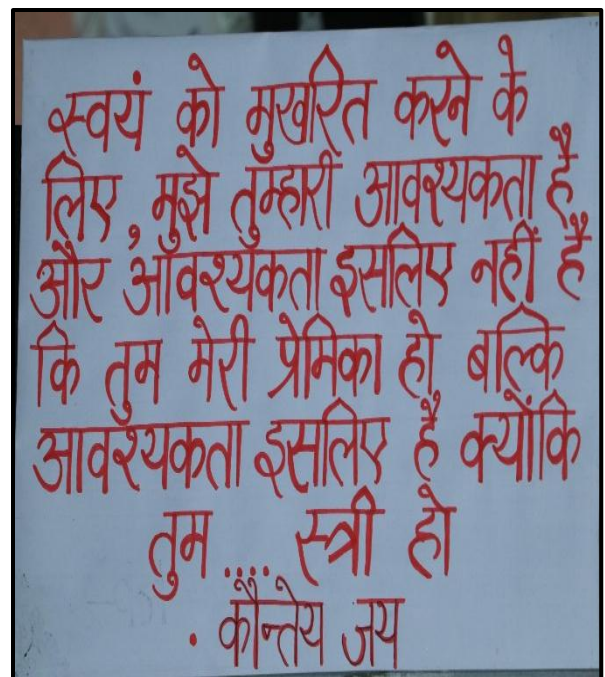

Presenting patriarchy, domestic violence, stereotypes and the current scenario in an adjusted form, an attempt was made to promote equality in the society through the play 'Kitne Baune Hum Tum'. Along with this, an attempt was also made to strengthen the spirit of an inclusive society through this theatrical presentation. This play was written and directed by Kaunteya Jai of University of Lucknow.

Co-directed by Mayankdhar Mishra, composed by Anmol Mishra, sung by Rishita Prajapati, costume by Sonal Sharma and craft by Harshita Arya. Actors Arpit Singh, Manas Bajpai, Vaibhav Pandey and Prashant Kushwaha also played roles.

At the end of the play, Kaunteya Jai thanked Prof. Manish Gaur, Director of IIIT Una, Prof. Alok Kumar Rai, Vice Chancellor of Lucknow University, Gender Sensitisation Cell Convenor Prof. Roli Misra and members of ICC Cell, IIT Una and said that we hope we have been able to convey the reality of our consciousness to you.

Director of IIIT Una Prof. Manish Gaur said after this presentation that this presentation is not entertainment but a need of our society. University of Lucknow is an educational institution more than 100 years old and Team Kavyom lived up to the level of presentation that was expected from the students of University. For this, special thanks to Prof. Alok Kumar Rai, Vice Chancellor of University of Lucknow, who constituted this Gender Sensitisation Cell. Along with this, he also thanked the convener of Gender Sensitisation Cell, Prof. Roli Misra and all the members of the team.

The students of IIIT Una also showed enthusiasm towards the play and appreciated every act and every character of the play.
