Report

On 07 May 2026, The Happy Thinking Laboratory (HTL) and Counselling and Guidance Cell (CGC) , organized a Session on “Ravindranath Tagore Jayanti (Shri Ravindranath Tagore: Ek Vyaktitva)”.The event was held at the Happy Thinking Lab, 3rd Floor, ONGC Building, University of Lucknow.The program was held under the patronage of the Hon’ble Vice Chancellor, Prof. Jai Kumar Saini, whose guidance continues to inspire academic excellence within the University. Rabindranath Tagore Jayanti is celebrated to honor the birth anniversary and achievements of Rabindranath Tagore. It aims to promote literature, music, art, culture, education, and human values. The celebration inspires people, especially students, to follow his ideals of creativity, peace, unity, and love for humanity and cultural heritage. The session started with the Director of Happy Thinking Laboratory Prof.M. Priyadarshini.

Prof.M. Priyadarshini told that the celebration reminds people of Tagore’s ideals of peace, education, creativity, and universal brotherhood. His writings continue to inspire generations and promote cultural harmony. Tagore Jayanti is not only a tribute to a literary genius but also a celebration of India’s rich cultural heritage.

Prof.Vaishali Saxena told that Rabindranath Tagore Jayanti is an important cultural event that honors the life and achievements of Rabindranath Tagore. His timeless works and visionary ideas continue to influence literature, music, education, and society around the world. Celebrating his birth anniversary helps preserve and spread his valuable teachings and artistic legacy.

Students delivered speeches highlighting Tagore’s contribution to literature, music, education, and Indian culture. A group of students beautifully sang Rabindra Sangeet, which created a peaceful and cultural atmosphere in the auditorium. Several students also recited Tagore’s famous poems. Student explained the importance of Tagore’s teachings and encouraged students to follow the values of creativity, kindness, and discipline.The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof.Vaishali Saxena. The Session was informative, inspiring, and enjoyable for all the students and teachers present.
