Report

Mission Shakti

(An Initiative by the Government of Uttar Pradesh)

Theme: Aurat Hoon Magar Soorat-e-Kohsaar Khadi hoon

The Department of Persian, in collaboration with Mission Shakti Phase-IV, organized a special program entitled 'Aurat Hoon Magar Soorat-e Kohsar Khadi hoon' on 25th August, 2022 in the Department of Persian at 3 pm. The Mission Shakti program, an initiative of the government of Uttar Pradesh, has had a quite a successful run in the university of Lucknow under the dynamic leadership of Prof. Madhurima Lall. The program in the Department of Persian was also a step in that direction. The Department of Persian is proud to be associated with the UP government's initiative of Mission Shakti. To begin with, Dr. Md. Arshadul Quadri, Coordinator of Mission Shakti Program for the Department of Persian, introduced the theme of the program and the strong message on womanhood associated with the theme. It was followed by the welcome address of Dr. S. Ghulam Nabi Ahmad, the coordinator of the Department of Persian. In his welcome address Dr. Ghulam Nabi Ahmad welcomed all the people present there and stressed upon the continuation of such programs in future. After the welcome address, Ghazal recitation program was held. The students of the Department recited beautiful ghazals on different aspects of womanhood. The selection of poetry, the presentation, everything was spot on. The students of the Department impressed one and all with the range of their voices and the sweetness of their melodies. After the ghazal recitation program, the students of the Department delivered speeches on women empowerment. They exhibited their fine oratory skills with aplomb and shared their views on different aspects of womanhood. Professor Madhurima Lall, convener Mission Shakti, was the Chief Guest on this occasion. In her address, she appreciated the Department of Persian for organizing a wonderful, meaningful and impressive program. She admitted the fact that she had been to such programs in different departments but the precision, objectivity and intensity with which the Department of Persian organizes such events was really commendable. She also spoke at length on the aims and objectives of Mission Shakti. Prof. Umar Kamaluddin, ex HoD Persian, proposed vote of thanks on this occasion. In his address, Prof. Kamaluddin thanked all those present in the program. He took Prof. Madhurima Lall for special praise saying that her dedication, energy level and commitment was exemplary. Prof. Kamaluddin also enlightened the audience with his short speech on women empowerment. He said that a woman dons different role under different circumstances with great ease. According to him everybody talks of mother, sister, daughter, wife but there are other women too who have become mother and sister for those deprived of their own mothers or sisters.

Dr. Arshadul Quadri, Asstt. Professor, Dept. Of Persian and also the Departmental coordinator of Mission Shakti, moderated the entire event. He thanked Prof. Madhurima Lall for her guidance and motivation to organise such an important programme.
